CONSERVATIVE LEADER BEN BIUS ANNOUNCES FOR TEXAS HOUSE SEAT DISTRICT 12

Huntsville – Conservative Leader Ben Bius announced his intention today to seek the Republican nomination for District 12 seat in the Texas House of Representatives.

“On Friday, I will journey to Austin to make my candidacy official by filing with the Republican Party of Texas. Citizens from across the entire 12th district as well as state, national and community leaders, have reached out encouraging me to rejoin the race and help them have their conservative values represented.” Bius stated.

“The message is clear, Texans, in the heart of Texas, want an experienced conservative, who stands up, can’t be bought, and clearly has a servant heart. This very important Texas district needs a lifelong, tried, and true conservative leader with a track record of getting things done. After watching the Texas House of Representatives impeachment, failure to get things done and poisonous bickering, I will bring some sanity and statesmanship to Austin. I will put Texas and this district first. I hear the folks say, in this, the heart of Texas, they want the madness to end,” he said.

Ben Bius is an independent businessman with deep roots in Texas. He is descended from a long line of Texas farmers, ranchers, and merchants. He and his family have been brought up on the Texas traditions of faith, hard work, and dedication to family.

Ben is the founder and CEO of a successful group of real estate investments, developments, and a construction company, based in Huntsville, Texas, serving throughout the region that makes up House District 12th district. Ben’s business is recognized as a major contributor in quality economic development in his hometown.

Ben has been a leader in conservative Texas politics supporting candidates like Donald Trump, Ted Cruz and many others over his lifetime. Ben is not seeking a job, pension or to advance a political career. Rather, he looks forward to serving the Great and Sovereign State of Texas and this beautiful district.

Ben recognizes that “to whom much is given, much is expected.” Ben believes we must be constantly vigilant, and it is our duty to stand and serve when called. Ben pledges that he will follow the Word and Constitution. Ben graduated from Sam Houston State University, majoring in Finance in 1979.

“This campaign will be about the future of Texas and the preservation of the values that make the Lone Star State the greatest place on earth.” “RELLIS embodies those values, and they are worth fighting for: Respect, Excellence, Leadership, Loyalty, Integrity and Selfless Service”. “I hope that each voter reaches out to me through our web page at www.benbiusfortexas.com or text my cell phone at 936-439-3865.” “To save our state and nation we all need to pray THEN VOTE”
